

2011-2012 Policy Agenda

CEDAM: The Community Economic Development Association of Michigan

In 2011 and 2012, CEDAM will take the lead to:

- Ensure that Michigan's tax code provides for well-placed affordable housing development
- Encourage Michigan's regional planning system to support and include community economic development
- Improve funding strategies and finance options for downtowns and commercial districts
- Promote creative solutions for local governments to improve safety and mobility options for residents

CEDAM supports the efforts and agendas of:
